

K-LOVE provides 'family friendly' programming that allows my four children to listen to the radio without hearing objectionable or obscene material/language. If K-LOVE were replaced with other programming by an LPFM station, we would enjoy LESS choice in the type of programming that is preferred by my family. The type of programming that is provided by K-LOVE strengthens the very moral fiber of our community, in obvious contrast to most programming presented over many other broadcast signals.